

INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL STATEMENT INSTRUCTIONS

USCIS requires evidence of sufficient financial resources for the duration of studies and sponsorship verification before issuing the I-20 or DS2019 (required to obtain a visa). All documents must be originals and submitted with English translations.

SECTION 1: STUDENT’S STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES

The applicant must read, complete, sign and date Section 1.

SECTION 2: SPONSOR’S STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL COMMITMENT AND EMPLOYER LETTER

Each sponsor must sign and date Section 2. Include a letter from the sponsor’s employer, written in English and on company letterhead, verifying employment and annual salary in U.S. dollars. Salary should be sufficient to sustain the sponsor’s family and the student’s expenses at TCU for the duration of studies. If your sponsor is self-employed, please have the bank or company accountant state that the sponsor is self-employed, and in what capacity, and at what annual salary. If self-sponsored, the applicant should write “self” as the name of the sponsor and sign and date Section 2. A self-sponsored student must currently have funds in the bank to cover costs for the entire period of studies at TCU.

Note: If a student has more than one sponsor, the student and each sponsor must complete a separate financial statements and indicate the amount of support in Section 2. Copies of the financial statement can be for additional sponsors.

SECTION 3: FINANCIAL VERIFICATION FROM FINANCIAL INSTITUTION

An official of the sponsor’s financial institution must complete, sign, and put an official seal or stamp on a certification statement on the institution’s letterhead. An example of the wording that can be used follows:

“I hereby certify that according to our records and in my opinion, SPONSOR’S NAME, the sponsor of STUDENT’S NAME, is capable of meeting the expenses of the student, as indicated on the Estimated Undergraduate Costs form. His current balance is ____.”

All supporting documents must be translated to English and indicate the current balance. As required by USCIS, the sponsor must have sufficient funds currently in the bank to cover at least a full year of expenses. Please include copies of documents that support the information in the bank letter. Evidence of the current balance and other basic information on supporting documents must be translated to English, and the amount should be equal to or greater than the amount listed in Section 2. When financial evidence is not in U.S. Currency, an official currency conversion must be provided.

2022-2023 ESTIMATED UNDERGRADUATE COSTS
